

Obituaries of Ronald P Germann and Elsie Josephine Burr

Ronald P. Germann, 80, died Tuesday, April 27, 2004, at his Sheridan [Wyoming] residence . . . Born Oct. 4, 1923, in Jackson to Walter and Pearl (Thacker) Germann, he grew up in Moran and moved to Sheridan in 1940. He finished high school and then worked for Birney Freight Lines and Germann Gas Service. He married Elsie Burr on Dec. 7, 1957, in Sheridan. In 1977 they opened Ron's L.P. Gas Service, retiring in 1994. They wintered in Yuma, Ariz., and spent a few summers in Alaska and Canada. Mr. Germann enjoyed boating, waterskiing, fishing, hunting, shooting, playing cards, and especially spending time with his family. A lifetime member of Sheridan County Sportsmen's Association, National Rifle Association, and Elks Club, he also belonged to Arizona Old Time Fiddlers Association. Survivors include . . . ten grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Sheridan Press (Sheridan Wyoming); 29 April 2004.

Elsie Josephine Germann, 87, of Sheridan, passed away Monday, March 19, 2018 at Westview Health Care Center.

She was born December 20, 1930 in Gillette, Wyoming to Andrew Albert Burr and Tessie (Garrett) Burr. She married Ronald Germann on December 7, 1957. To this union were born 2 sons, Gary and Larry to join daughter, Wanda, from a previous marriage.

Elsie and Ron worked hand in hand as owners of Ron's L.P. Gas for 17 years. They were members of the Big Horn Mountain Gun Club, Rocky Mountain Propane Association and the Elks. Elsie loved playing cards, camping in the Big Horn Mountains, fishing trips to Canada and Alaska, traveling, gardening, and dancing. She also, enjoyed looking after family and guests, being a grandmother and becoming a snowbird in Arizona, were some of her favorite moments in life.

Preceding her in death were her husband, Ron; and brothers, Cliff and Wayne Burr.

Elsie is survived by . . sixteen great grandchildren. She was loved and will be missed by all those happy children and now adults who knew her as "Grandma G" or simply "G."

Champion Funeral Home, March 24, 2018.

Notes for Ronald Germann and Elsie Burr; compiled by Pamela Hutchison Garrett, 2019; for Family Stories at pamgarrett.com.